Come out, kick up your cowboy boots and enjoy some country music, BBQ and a fun evening at the 2010 Red Cross Barn Party Saturday, August 14th at 6 p.m. at Womack Stables at Glen Oaks Farms in Murfreesboro. Tickets are $50 per person and the cost includes food, beverages and fun. Food will be provided by Rick's BBQ and the event will be held at Womack Stables rain or shine. Tickets may also be purchased at the gate.

The Red Cross is thrilled to welcome musical guests, Tim James and the James Brothers Band. James is a Middle Tennessee native and is very well known on the Nashville country music scene as a very talented songwriter. He has enjoyed many major label artist cuts including the 5-week number one single "My List" recorded by Toby Keith. James has also had his songs recorded by such artists as Trace Adkins, LeeAnn Womack, Jeff Bates, Tim Rushlow, Mark Wills, Josh Gracin, American Idol finalist Bucky Covington and fellow Murfreesboro native and Nashville Star winner Chris Young.

"Last year's Barn Party was so much fun, and we really wanted to make this year's even better to help replenish our local disaster fund so that the Red Cross can help the community continue to prepare, respond and recover from disasters," said Red Cross Development Director, Beth Ferguson.

All funds raised through event ticket sales and company sponsorships will go to the local Red Cross Chapter to help victims of local disasters, such as fires, tornadoes and floods, and to aid U.S. military members and their families who need Red Cross services. The Red Cross is NOT a government agency and depends on generous gifts from the community to respond to disasters around the clock and around the block. This fundraiser will help your local Red Cross serve your neighbors in need in Middle Tennessee every day!
