Red Cross Offers CPR Instructor Training for Professional Rescuers

(MURFREESBORO) August 30, 2010 – Attention Fire Station Captains, EMT Units, and all other Medical Professionals: You can have a staff member trained as a CPR Professional Rescuer Instructor NOW!

The Heart of Tennessee Chapter of the American Red Cross is offering a CPR/AED for the Professional Rescuer Instructor Course. The purpose of the American Red Cross CPR/AED for the Professional Rescuer Instructor course is to train instructor candidates to teach the American Red Cross CPR/AED for the Professional Rescuer. This course prepares instructor candidates to use course materials, conduct training sessions and evaluate the progress of participants in a professional-level course. Having a member of your staff trained as an instructor allows for flexibility in training times and dates as well as saves your company training cost.

Class starts Sept 11th and continues through the 13th - 15th.

Day 1 (Pre-course), Day 2 (Challenge and FIT), Day 3 (Sessions 1 & 2), Day 4 (Session 3 & 4)

To sign up for the class go to www.midtnredcross.org If you have any questions please call 615.893.4272 ext. 102.

The Heart of Tennessee Chapter of the American Red Cross provides vital emergency assistance to help victims of local disasters in Rutherford, Bedford, Cannon, Franklin, Coffee, Moore & Wayne counties. Over the past year the Chapter responded to 99 single family fires, trained nearly 11,625 people in CPR & First Aid, Babysitting and Aquatics training, and provided pre-deployment briefings and emergency communications for 284 families of active duty military personnel and their families. Over 13,177 pints of life-saving blood were collected from the community last year. All of these services are made possible by over 320 dedicated local Red Cross volunteers as well as through generous gifts from the local community. To get more information please call 615) 893-4272 or log on to www.midtnredcross.org.
